J. How we intend to use and repay the funds

- We intend to utilize the funding primarily for working capital and operational purposes. The funds will be used to support our marketing activities, including the rental of corporate meeting rooms and the organization of high-tea events for FCPO seminars and related business activities. In addition, part of the funding will be allocated towards operational expenses, particularly consultant and professional service fees required to support our business activities. We ready cash to pay for upfront travel, fuel, and meeting expenses before getting reimbursed.
- Based on our current financial performance, stable cash flow, and ongoing business activities, we are confident in our ability to meet the monthly repayment obligations in a timely manner.
