J. How we intend to use and repay the funds

The financing will be utilised primarily as working capital to support our ongoing projects. The funds will be used to finance the purchase of materials and supplies, fabrication-related costs, labour and subcontractor payments, as well as other day-to-day operating expenses. As our business is mainly project-based, sufficient working capital is required to manage the timing gap between project-related expenditures and collections from customers. Repayment of the financing will be made from our operating cash flow and collections generated from ongoing and completed projects.
