J. How we intend to use and repay the funds

The fund is sought for working capital and business expansion, including the expansion of our football-related event management activities. The funds will be utilised to organise and expand football-related events, including tournament and event management activities, which will create additional revenue streams through event participation, management fees, sponsorships, and related sales opportunities. The funds will also support the production and purchase of our own branded football jerseys, sportswear, and other merchandise, which will be distributed and sold across all branches of football training center to serve our existing customer base and expand sales opportunities.

The expansion is expected to support higher sales and revenue, improve overall profitability, and strengthen the company's cash flow to ensure timely repayment of the facility.
